

Anh Ha Kieu Nguyen: Bamboo Xylophone Artist/Musician

Anh Ha's performance started when she was 10 years old, plucking strings for teachers at the National Music School in Vietnam. Later on, she moved to New "Stage Performance Arts" High School specializing in traditional music.

As a soloist, dancer, singer, and comedienne at Long An Province Arts Group, she has won numerous awards and accolades. She has spent the last 25 years performing through Vietnam during community and holiday events and abroad. In 2007, she emigrated to Minnesota and was thrilled that she can continue to perform traditional Vietnamese Music to many audiences
