

Red Hot Peppers

Red Hot Peppers are from Dao Lan Dance School. The Red Hot Peppers dancers come and go at the end of each Hmong New Year. This year we have 11 dancers. Some of the dancers have been together as long as two to four years. Together they strive to do their best to compete at different events. This is the first year that they will be practicing four songs to compete or perform whenever needed. The dancers have two Chinese dances, one Thai dance and one Hmong dance. The dancers' hope this year is to go as far as California, Wisconsin and to other states to compete and/or perform whenever necessary.
